

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Association of Greek Veterans Athletics (SEVAS) in Alexandroupolis, supported by the Greek Veteran Athletic Federation (OEVAS) located in Athens, in cooperation with the Municipality of Alexandroupolis, organizes the 1st Panhellenic Masters Athletics Championship of Combined Events, on the 26th and 27th of August 2017.

The competition will take place in “Fotis Kosmas” stadium, in Alexandroupolis, including the following events:

1. Pentathlon and Decathlon for men
2. Heptathlon for women

Foreign athletes have the right to compete, on the condition they belong as members to a Masters Association or Federation in their country.

- All athletes must comply with the IAAF and WMA 2013-16 competition rules.
- If a group of foreign athletes will be formed, they will be awarded separately from the rest Greek athletes. For winners of each age group there will be gold, silver and bronze medals prepared. It is going to be awarded an extra cup for the person who is going to achieve the best score-result of all age groups.
- Before competing all athletes should have been medically checked, proving their excellent health condition.
- Athletes should take care of all the expenses privately, including transferring, accommodation and board.
- In the call room, before competing, a payment of 10 € is also required. After that each athlete has to receive the participating number.
- Especially for pole vaulting, the Organizing Committee will provide 4 poles for athletes they weigh up to 85 kgr.

Also attached is the form that needs to be filled and sent by the 23rd of August 2017 to the e-mail: elftheo1@gmail.com
